RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

Worn soldier boys from the trenches! Homesick soldier boys after a hard day's work! The Red Cross gives them a bit of home in its canteen—hospitable rooms, friendly associates, music, refreshing entertainment for body and mind. These canteens are Red Cross hospitals for the spirit, always open, always cheering.—Important Items.

Miss Margaret Welsh, of Muskogee, Ok., who has been visiting here, is waiting orders to take up Red Cross nursing in the U. S. army. She has been a Red Cross nurse for ten years and holds a rank equal to lieutenant in the army. As a member of a military unit she will be paid by the government, wear an army or navy nursing uniform and will be under orders of the medical staffs of the surgeons general.

At the Red Cross work room Monday fourteen workers received their Red Cross for their headdress, earned by 72 hours work. They took the oath of allegiance before the Red Cross was placed on their heads. Those receiving the honor were Mesdames Ed Salzer, B. A. Beckham, Harry Osborn, Charles Mansfield, Spencer Pannell, A. W. Bradford, Hal Kirk, C. A. Blakemore, L. D. McKee, O. B. McCaslin, Walter Swartzel and C. E. Whitlatch, M. L. Ingram and W. B. Flynn. Several others had already received their Red Cross and others are entitled to them who were not present on Monday. Others at the work room were Mrs. B. P. McCaslin, Miss Ruth Watson, Mrs. Chas. Frear, Mrs. C. M. Scott, Mrs. A. M. Peel, Mrs. Hugh Finch, Miss Helen Cooper, Mrs. J. W. Bingham, Miss Dorothy Morrow, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Pauline Mansfield, Miss Millicent Lewis, Miss Enid Clark and Miss Ruth Wilhelm.

HOWELL'S MEAT MARKET

NEW RULES

For Hotels, Restaurants, Clubs and Public Eating Places.

Sugar—Three pounds for each ninety meals served.

Use no cane or beet sugar in the manufacture of bakery products, nor in the kitchen. Remove sugar bowls from the tables and counters and restrict your sugar consumption to three pounds for each ninety meals served.

Not more than two teaspoonfuls of sugar or its equivalent in lump should be served to any one at any one meal. Corn sugar and brown sugar may be used as substitutes.

Hotels and restaurants using sugar for the manufacture of ice cream should keep separate accounts of the amount used for this purpose and list it on monthly report separate from the sugar used in the cafe.

Wheat—Six pounds for each ninety meals served.

Public eating places and clubs shall adopt maximum ration of wheat flour (or its wheat equivalent contained in such wheat products as Victory bread, macaroni, etc.) of six pounds, wheat flour for every ninety meals served. In addition thereto not to serve in the aggregate a total of any products containing more than two ounces of wheat flour to any one guest at any one meal.

No licensee operating a hotel, restaurant, dining car, steamship, boarding house or other public eating place or club shall serve to any person at any meal more than two (2) ounces of bread or rolls of class 1, known as Victory bread, or flour four (4) ounces of muffins, cornbread, Boston brown bread, baking powder biscuits, or quick breads of class 5, or of other breads containing from one to 33 1-3 per cent of wheat flour. No limit has been placed upon the amount of wheatless bread that may be served.

Wheatless days and meals must be observed, and by wheatless is meant no wheat flour in any food served, except that amount contained in Victory bread and quick breads, which can be served in public eating places on wheatless days and for wheatless meals. No wheat products shall be served at any time unless ordered.

Mondays and Wednesdays, together with the evening meal of all other days of the week are wheatless. You are urged to use quick breads in the place of Victory bread as far as possible until next harvest.

Meat—Approximately 8 1/2 to 9 pounds for each ninety meals served.

Roast beef, whether hot or cold, should be served only on Monday at midday meal. Stewed, boiled or beef hash on Wednesday and Saturday at midday meal. Steaks in any form, including hamburger steak, on Thursday at midday meal.

The only exception to this is that chili may be served in a medium or mild form any day of the week. Straight chili, without beans, will not be allowed. Hamburger stands will be allowed to continue their use of hamburger meat, but must not use over 9 pounds for each ninety people served. Barbecue stands must follow the above beef regulations.

Public eating places must not advertise the days and meals upon which beef is served, or in any way attract the attention of customers, thereby increasing the consumption of beef.

Every patriotic eating place is expected to limit on once on a voluntary basis with the meat program as set forth. In case of violation all dealers delivering supplies to such a violator will be ordered to stop supply.

Hotels and restaurants and other public eating places are urged to keep the meat consumption, including poultry, as nearly as possible to two pounds per person per week, or approximately 8 1/2 to 9 pounds for each ninety meals served. To do this, it will be necessary to reduce the size of all meat orders and serve vegetables instead. All public eating places, whether licensed or unlicensed, are expected to follow the rules as set forth.

County Food Administrator.

Going Into Army Service

Feeling that it was my patriotic duty to offer my services to the government, I have done so. The President has issued me a commission, which I have accepted. I will soon be subject to call.

I will now ask all persons indebted to me to call and settle. Leaving my work here will necessitate a great sacrifice to myself and family. So I will expect a quick response from the friends who have accepted my services. After July 1 all accounts will be in the hands of a collector.

Respectfully,

FARNUM IN "ROUGH AND READY" AT BIJOU THEATER

William Farnum in "Rough and Ready" will be the attraction at the Bijou Theater Friday. This is a William Fox production and is said to be fully the equal of "When a Man Sees Red."

In "Rough and Ready" Mr. Farnum portrays the part of a western ranch owner—a human, manly man. The story is out of the ordinary and deals with a phase of life new to the cinema.

Thank You!

I wish to thank the public for their liberal patronage of my lard sale. I appreciate it very much and I believe every pail will bring back a satisfied customer, judging by the compliments we have received. I also wish to thank my competitor for helping me to advertise the sale, as I had forgotten to mention that I was selling below cost.

Respectfully,

LESTER HOWELL.

Notice, L. A. to O. R. C.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Order Railway Conductors will hold a basket picnic, on the evening of July 4, 1918, at Peirce City lake.
